

RAFFETY

FINE ANTIQUE CLOCKS

18TH CENTURY ANTIQUE GEORGE III SATINWOOD BRACKET CLOCK BY JAMES EVILL OF BATH

Circa: England, 1790

Good

69 x 34 cm
2' 3¹/₄" x 1' 1³/₄"

England, 1790
69 x 34 x 17 cm (27¹/₄" x 13³/₄" x 6³/₄" inches)
Satinwood

An imposing antique George III period satinwood bracket clock, on matching wall bracket, by this reputable firm of West Country clockmakers. The figured veneered case is of bold classical style and has crisply carved side volutes, swept top with central finial and is raised on a brass edged base which sits into the matching wall bracket. The circular dial and engraved circular backplate are fully signed.

This clock strikes each hour on a bell and is of one week duration.